6. Reasons for the decision of the Local Tribunal. (To be signed and dated by the presiding chairman.)

The man concerned in this Appeal by the Military Representative against the decision of the local Tribunal is aged 41 years and six months. It was within the knowledge of the Tribunal that the man in addition to serving in the V.T.C. is doing extremely useful work in connection with wounded soldiers. Having regard to his age alone it was thought that he might be granted a short period of exemption while the Tribunal are dealing with the claims of far younger men. An exemption was accordingly granted to 23rd May.
